And the Dy. Comr. considers there is little or no chance of the Municipal Council being persuaded in the circumstance to employ a qualified Sanitary Inspector. The Dy. Comr. however recommends the appointment of an Assistt. San. Inspector the pay of a San. Inspector is Rs 30-2-40 + 10 House allowance and that of an Assistt. Sanitary Inspector Rs 20-1-25 + 10 Allce. In the circumstances, the Dy. Commissioner's recommendation does not entail additional Cost. Under the Health Scheme orders, Serugapatam Municipality should employ a Sanitary and an Assistant San. Inspector

To

General and Revenue Department.

Sir,

I have the honor to submit herewith an extract from the proceedings of Seringapatam Municipal Council dated 29th. September 1910, resolving that a Sanitary Inspector be appointed solely for the Municipal works. The conservancy staff of the town is at present working under an unqualified overseer who is paid Rs. 25/- per mensem. Besides the man holding that post is now under suspension for some irregularities and there is little or no chance of the man being restored to that post. Hence this seems to be a favorable opportunity to replace an unqualified man by a qualified hand. I request you therefore to obtain the sanction of Government to appoint an Assistant Sanitary Inspector to the Seringapatam Municipality, who will supervise the Sanitation and public works.

I have the honor to be

Sir
